Dear Mr Nelson

Australian Government Branding

I am writing in response to the request received from you that the decision on exemption from the new Australian Government branding requirements in relation to a number of entities under the Director of National Parks be reconsidered.

The Prime Minister has considered the request and the following entities have been granted exemption and may therefore continue to use their current logos:

- The Australian National Botanic Gardens
- Australian Biological Resources Study
- Becroft Weapons Range
- Booderee National Park
- Christmas Island National Park
- Kakadu National Park
- Norfolk Island National Park and Botanic Garden
- Pulu Keeling National Park and Cocos Island Conservancy
- Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park.

If you have any queries on this matter you can contact me on 6271 5400.

Your sincerely
